Mark D. Levine, Borough President

Office of Manhattan Borough President Fall Internship Program

The Manhattan Borough President's Office (MBPO) seeks interested college students, at the undergraduate and graduate levels, to participate in their internship program. Prospective interns are energetic, collaborative, innovative and committed to seeking out new and better ways for the office to connect with, and deliver for Manhattan's diverse neighborhoods, communities, and constituents. Interns will gain public service experience in a wide variety of professional areas including public policy, communications, constituent services, land use, special events planning and community relations. Interns will be placed in MBPO units based on their experience and interests.

Communications Fall Internship Opportunity:

Communications Unit Intern: Intern will assist Communications staff in creating a range of content, including video, blog posts, remarks, press releases, social media posts and other web content, as well as publicizing office events and initiatives like town hall meetings, policy forums and cultural receptions.

Qualifications

Ability to work as part of a team, work on multiple projects simultaneously, effective oral and Communications written communication skills, and interest in policy and quality of life issues in Manhattan.

Benefits

Although unpaid, interning offers valuable work experience; provides experience and skills to become more marketable upon entering the workplace; offers the chance to explore career options; may qualify for school credit.

Requirements

Flexible work schedule is available; must work a minimum of 20 hours per week for a minimum of three months.

- Fall internship dates: September 1 December 21, 2022
- Fall Internship application deadline: September 30, 2022

To apply

Those interested in seeking intern positions should send a cover letter and a resume in Word or PDF format via email to internship@manhattanbp.nyc.gov

As of August 2, 2021, all new hires, including interns must be vaccinated against the COVID-19 virus, unless they have been granted a reasonable accommodation for religion or disability. If you are offered city employment or an internship, this requirement must be met by your start date, unless a reasonable accommodation for exemption is received and approved by the hiring agency.
