NEW YORK, NY - Today, Manhattan Borough President Brad Hoylman-Sigal proclaimed June 11th, 2026, as OG Anunoby Appreciation Day in the Borough of Manhattan.

OG Anunoby has distinguished himself as one of the premier two-way players in professional basketball, earning widespread respect for his exceptional defensive abilities, athleticism, leadership, and unwavering commitment to excellence both on and off the court.

Since joining the New York Knicks, OG Anunoby has made a tremendous impact on the team through his relentless work ethic, versatility, and dedication to winning, helping to elevate the performance and competitive spirit of the organization.

Manhattan Borough President Brad Hoylman-Sigal said: "Last night, OG Anunoby distinguished himself as an all-time legend in both professional basketball and the New York Knicks franchise, helping the Knicks achieve the largest comeback in NBA Finals history. I'm proud to proclaim today, June 11th, 2026 as OG Anunoby Appreciation Day in recognition of his exceptional talent, selfless courage, and relentless dedication to winning. On behalf of 1.6 million Manhattanites, I wish him and the New York Knicks good luck as they compete to win the Larry O'Brien Trophy. KNICKS IN FIVE!"
